

6516205295.txt

Although I do not listen to the metro traffic/weather channels frequently, I enjoy the satellite radio service. It is my choice to have in my car or at home and I don't feel that the NAB has a right to limit the programming offered. It is a pay service that people choose to subscribe to, and as long as the content is in good taste, it should be allowed to continue. Thank You!